

InterContinental*****

The InterContinental Vienna was designed by the architect Carl Appel and was opened in 1964 as the first international business hotel in Vienna. It lies directly in the town park and only a few steps away from the Viennese ring road. The hotel has received, in spite of numerous rebuilding and renovation work in the course of the last forty years, his typical Viennese atmosphere and is valid till this day as a popular aim for Vienna visitor, business travellers, as well as congressional visitors and fair visitors. An excellent restaurant, the typical Viennese coffee house and the legendary Intermezzo Bar make the hotel a popular meeting place of the Viennese audience.

All guest-rooms are furnished in Viennese style and offer a look at the town park.

The rooms offer services like air-conditioning, safe, minibar, coffee- and teabar, telephone with voicemail, wireless LAN and international television.
