

3rd Research Forum of the European Association for Palliative Care “Methodology for Palliative Care Research”

Stresa, Lago Maggiore (Italy) 3-6 June 2004

Selected Posters

The following posters have been selected for a presentation during the “Poster Discussion Session” in Hall 1 on Saturday June 5 (10.15 - 12.15)

- 56 An optimal screening instrument for depression in terminally ill cancer patients:
a single question item M. Van der Lee (Netherlands)
- 60 Characteristic markers of pain in terminally ill cancer patients who are no longer responsive J.R.G. Gootjes (Netherlands)
- 66 Who should assess the patient's spiritual care needs?
A randomized study G.D. Borasio (Germany)
- 69 Learning to Break Bad News: A Collaborative Teaching, Learning and Research Initiative A. Walkefield (United Kingdom)
- 80 Place of death of cancer patients influenced by services from general practitioner and community nurse: cohort study B. Aabom (Denmark)
- 86 Positive consequences of supporting a dying relative:
findings from a randomized controlled trial P. Hudson (Australia)
- 101 Place of Death: Preferences Among Cancer Patients and their Carers C. Thomas (United Kingdom)
- 102 The significance of a neutral third party on the responder's answers in quality of life questionnaires after radical cystectomy for bladder cancer Å. Måansson (Sweden)
- 110 Measuring discomfort in severely demented patients: Psychometric properties of the Discomfort Scale Dementia of Alzheimer's Type (DS-DAT) H.R.W. Pasman (Netherlands)
- 132 Tolerability and repeatability of the incremental shuttle walking test using K4B2 in patients with lung cancer J. Frisby (United Kingdom)
- 133 Research strategies for symptom control in dying patients: Evaluating the drug management of respiratory tract secretions with the help of the Liverpool Care Pathway for the Dying Patient H. Hugel (United Kingdom)
- 147 Teamwork as a central concept in palliative care - A case report M. Pestinger (Germany)